WARWICK

The hands of the classroom clock have moved slowly toward the time for the bell to ring, liberating us from our last exam. The school year of 1952-1953 is over. We will go many different ways, but we will always be together in the pages of the 1953 WARWICK.

Perhaps in this annual we can relive some of our happy high school hours. This record was created with "CLOCKS" as its theme, for they are the symbol of our year of progress. We remember clocks in the crowded halls, seeming to tell us to hurry. The clock in the auditorium marked the last excited moments before commencement.

So that these memories of Warwick might never fade, The WARWICK Staff created this yearbook for the students, faculty, and administration.

Memories are everywhere

Wherever there is a drug store, students are sure to gather. These students are in the Briarfield Cut-Rate drugstore, relaxing and talking over their busy day at Warwick.

School's out! Now we are waiting to see an afternoon movie playing at the Village Theatre in Hilton.

These girls are going into the Parkview Community Center, a favorite place for parties after the football games.

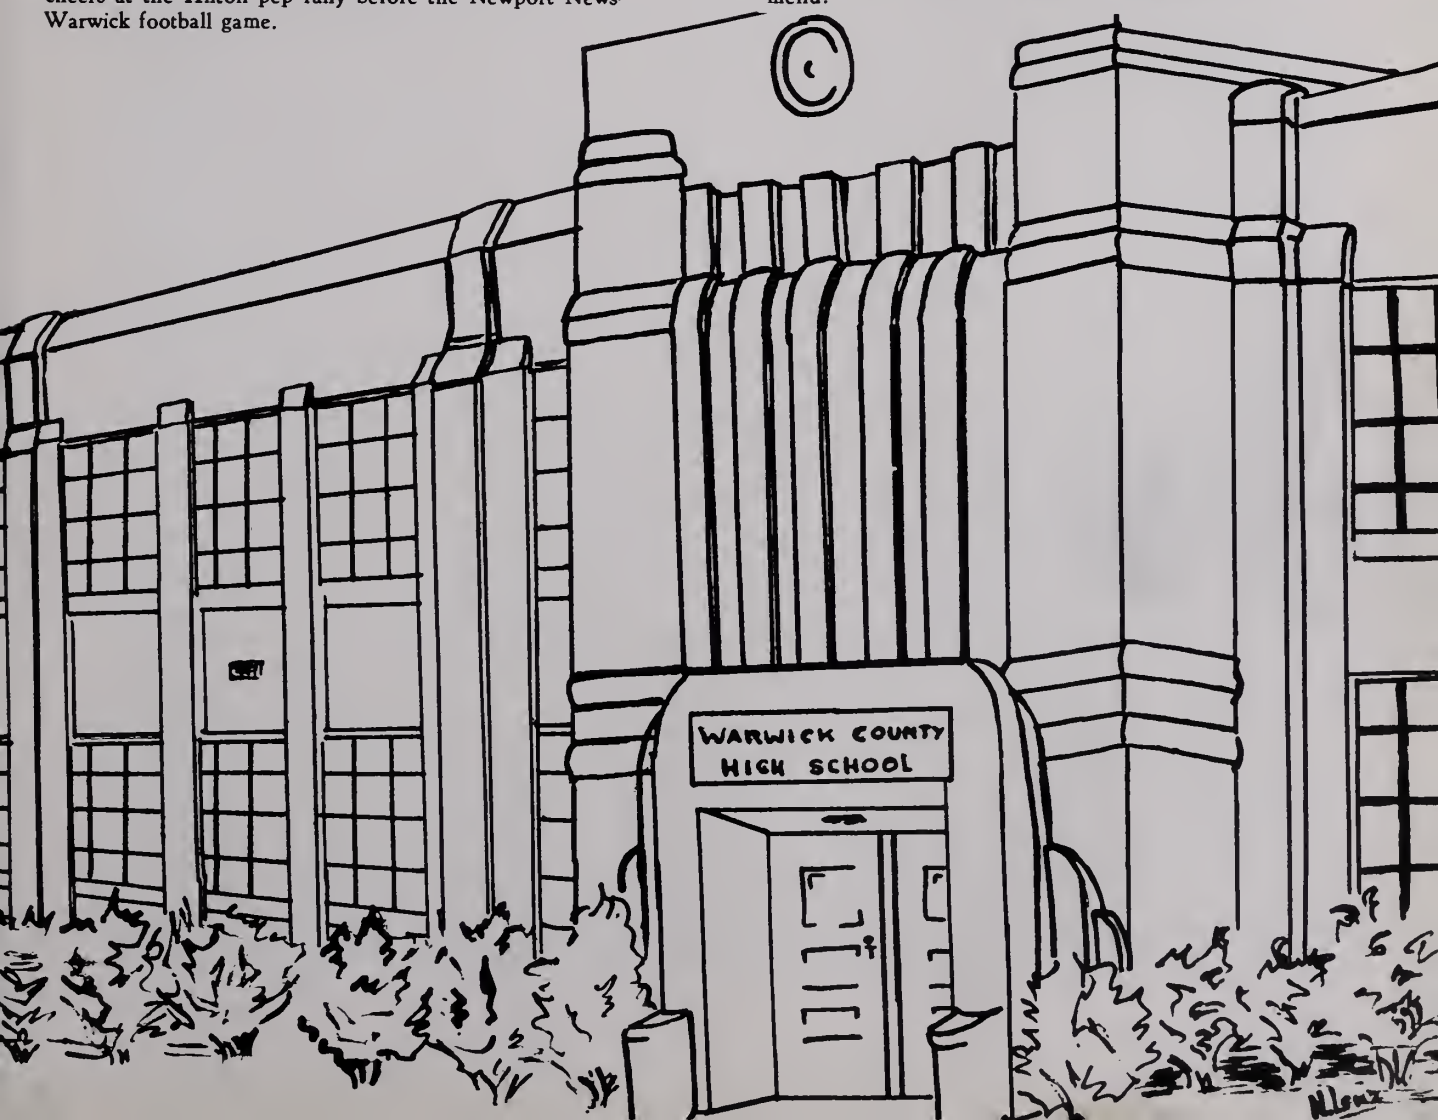

With flames leaping high around the football dummy, the cheerleaders form a circle and lead the crowd in spirited cheers at the Hilton pep rally before the Newport News-Warwick football game.

On the way to Newport News, we liked to stop for snacks at the W&S Drive-In near Ferguson Park. What's on the menu?

We Dedicate

During our high school years, we have met and have learned to understand many people, but it is seldom that we meet one whom we can never forget. In our midst is one who has helped us to open our minds to new ideals, to appreciate and cherish our heritage, and to accept the challenge of the times with understanding.

Many times her gentle humor has made us laugh aloud, and yet we understood that in times of trouble we would find in her a sympathetic and understanding counselor.

Because of her warm personality, her interest in and understanding of people, all who know her have come to love her. It is with this thought in mind that we, the 1953 annual staff, dedicate our WARWICK to Mrs. Jen Lou Pully.

Assistant Principal
Mr. Clarence A. Davis

Faced with the tremendous task of managing the problems of over 1400 students and teachers are our principals and office staff. The greatest share of this task is the responsibility of our Principal, Mr. George W. Cox, Jr. The duties of our Assistant Principal, Mr. C. A. Davis, are many and varied.

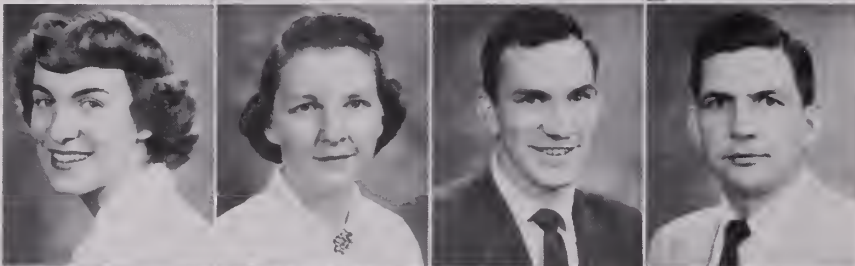

Miss Margaret Thomas, Secretary to the Principal, is well known to all the students, for it is she who signs their special excuses. The office assistants, Miss Sally Hamilton and Miss Caroline Welch, handle the office work of our large and growing school.

We remember hours of companionship

Senior Class Officers...

Standing: Sara Jane Bowden, Secretary; Clyde LaRue, President; "Ronny" McManus, Parliamentarian.
Kneeling: Cecelia Pope, Treasurer; Nancy Lenz, Reporter; Gay Curtis, Vice-President.

Last September we found ourselves in the coveted roles of seniors. We greatly anticipated our graduation, for it meant independence would be ours. As graduation day drew nearer, we realized that high school held an important part in our lives. For had not our characters been molded, our minds opened to new ideas, our destiny set at a Utopian height?

We felt disillusionment in learning of a confused and chaotic world, but our class song reassured us. We realize how we can "Never Walk Alone," for our friends will be our lasting friends. Our teachers will be our counselors in the years to come, for they have instilled in us the challenge of the future.

Our senior year reviewed all of our high school life. From our first football game to our last, we learned the pride as victors as well as the disappointment as losers when we vowed to "win this game another time." The first basketball game and a Christmas dance, two weeks early, came rushing back among the tide of memories. Then came the most wonderful evening of all, the prom, a memory now of floating colors, a haze of maroon, gold, and white, a brilliance unequaled in music, and laughter, bound together by the realization that the underclassmen were bidding us a formal goodbye. In the Baccalaureate sermon we learned of the age-old challenge to youth in troubled times, and we resolved to make ours a better world.

Then commencement came, all too soon, over too quickly; walking up that familiar aisle we gained confidence from the reassurance reflected in the faces of our parents, teachers, and friends. Even the open doors beckoned us as if to show that, although our high school days were over, "another book was open, the book of life."

Seniors of the Hour.

NANCY LOU LENZ

Because of her outstanding contributions to her school, Nancy received the annual D. A. R. Award. Serving as Senior Reporter and Art Editor for THE WARWICK, she was always interested in the ever-changing life at Warwick. Interested in the U. S. government—its history and its future, Nancy plans to further her studies in this field at Longwood College.

SAMUEL RUSSELL BLAND

As S.C.A. Parliamentarian, Sammy has been active in all school activities. We can readily understand why one with such perseverance should have been elected the "Best Citizen." Rounding out a versatile high school career, he was featured on both track and basketball teams. We know that Sammy will go far as he pursues his scientific studies at Randolph-Macon.

PATRICIA ELIZABETH PERRIN

Talented Pat excels in the literary field and has received such honors as national and regional short story awards. Combining this talent with her artistic ability, Pat has ably edited and illustrated the SPONGE. After her studies at Duke, we will look forward to seeing her fashion illustrations in the leading magazines.

DOUGLAS MILLER LAWSON

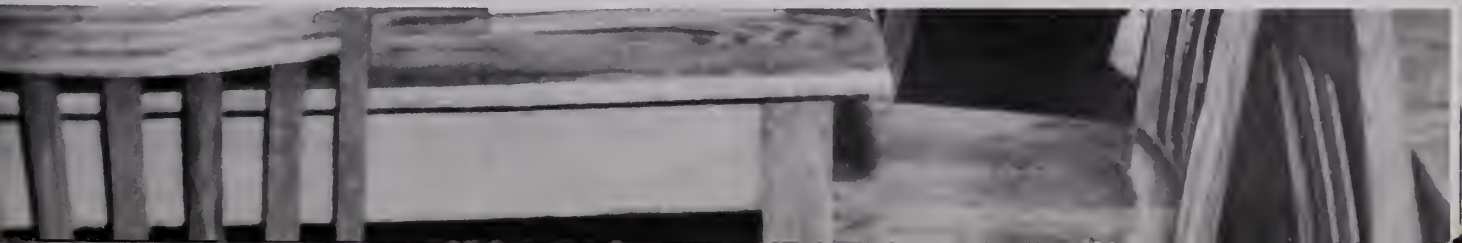

Always a leader, always successful, Doug has excelled in the classroom, on the athletic field, and as head of the S.C.A. Under his able direction the activity ticket was successfully launched and a new S.C.A. constitution written.

As he begins his medical studies at Randolph-Macon, we wish him the best of luck.

We remember full hours as underclassmen

The Juniors make every minute

Who will ever forget our first class meeting? It was then that each of us realized how big our class really was. The novelty of the occasion made it hard for our President to keep order; nevertheless, we covered many topics and made big decisions.

Soon we were measured for our class rings. There were few who did not have a hard time deciding which type of ring they should buy.

With Christmas drawing near, many Juniors worked hard decorating for the Christmas dance. After the work, everyone had a gay time, but many were the sighs that could be heard from the workers, as students pulled blue crepe paper down from the ceiling and dragged it around the floor after the dance.

With the start of the new year, the many Junior committees had meetings, for they were busy preparing for the ever important Junior-Senior prom.

The class rings arrived in the early spring amid a great flurry of excitement. Then everyone really felt like an upperclassman.

The work began in earnest with the time of the prom approaching; no one had time for "spring fever." At last the night arrived, and we saw all our plans begin to materialize.

The decorated, empty gym was lovely, but how could it compare with the beauty of the dresses, the flowers, and the smiling faces of the students who arrived? These were the things that we remember; they were the touch to the beauty which all our planning could not have accomplished alone.

With our work as Juniors complete, we watched the Seniors as they prepared to leave school. With wonder and hope, we looked to the year ahead, for we were to take their places.

Time flies, and Sophomores will "Pass to the tenth grade." Our finished ninth grade report cards seemed to speak of a year completed, of new hours waiting for us. "Passing" meant progressing to more specialized studies, and really becoming a part of Warwick's activities.

As our sophomore year began, many of our classmen were playing Varsity and Junior Varsity football. Six sophomores were J.V. cheerleaders, and with "victory" always their cry, they cheered for the J.V. team.

In November several members of our class went with other Warwick students to the District S.C.A. Convention held at Mathews High School. They exchanged ideas with other schools, and returned with many new plans to make a better school.

Many of us were members of the S.C.A. Congress, and all of us supported S.C.A. dances and the student activity ticket.

The sophomores who took dramatics acted in several assembly plays, such as "Ring in the Groom," and there were always sophomores helping behind the scenes with everything from make-up to scenery. One member of our class acted in the fall play "Ring Around Elizabeth," and several of us worked on the play's committees.

During basketball season many boys were on the J.V. basketball team and one played Varsity basketball.

All year our music students played in the band or sang in concerts and assemblies. Our classmates in Glee Club were singing "God of Our Fathers" Commencement night as the seniors left with their diplomas, and we realized that our year was complete.

"Pass to the eleventh grade." Looking back, we remember the remarkable spirit at Warwick. We feel that we really became a part of that spirit in our active sophomore year which we will remember always.

Eager Freshmen look forward

In September, 1952, we found we were no longer "rats." At last we were freshmen, and we looked ahead to many new jobs and many good times.

First, there were new studies. We found ourselves carrying home more books than ever before, for we were beginning Latin, algebra, and more difficult science.

Second, with many new activities, we still had time for fun. During football season we cheered for the maroon and gold of Warwick, while many of our classmates were marching in the band or advancing in Junior Varsity sports.

Many of us were trying out for plays for the first time. In December one freshman acted in the three-act play "Ring Around Elizabeth."

Music 9 began their December assembly by singing Palestrina's "Gloria Patri" and "Evening Prayer" from Hansel and Gretel. Then the glee club and the senior band presented something new. They played and sang together while the audience sang carols with them. They used this new arrangement in their program at the Christmas Community Sing in Hilton. Dressed in the red and white of Valentine Day, Music 9 sang with the other choruses in assembly while skits were acted out.

We freshmen worked hard this year to support the new student activity ticket. Day after day we sold magazines, and each day our achievements grew. How proud we were when we made headlines in THE SPONGE as the highest selling class.

We enjoyed every minute, every second of our busy freshman year; time passed quickly, and we looked forward to being upperclassmen.

Eighth Grade

In spite of the smears of lipstick and a difficult reading test, we decided that high school was going to be pretty nice after all. The first day the Orientation Committee succeeded in making us feel at home by presenting to us "THE COMPASS," an especially prepared guidebook.

One glance at our schedule cards warned us that we would be in for quite a bit of study, for we were not science, home ec., and civics new to us? We soon, however, learned that outside speakers and special projects and field trips helped learning about our school, community, and country to be more interesting.

The magazine campaign served as a test to our initiative and perseverance; how proud we were when we passed with flying colors! We were among the record salesmen!

Determined to become a definite part of Warwick—its activities and functions—we at once began taking an active part in all phases of Warwick life. Nancy Mapp and Kitty Turner entertained us in assembly, and my how excited we were when some of us entered into Junior Varsity football. It seems that we must have a very talented class with the large number participating in both glee club and band.

We still have much to learn about Warwick, but if our first year has been a sample, we are glad that we have four more years ahead of us. We plan to work hard to make Warwick High even better; we are going to lend our time and our talents, so that as we grow in wisdom Warwick will become an even stronger and even more wonderful school.

Student Co-operative Association

In the spring of 1952 the Student Ticket Committee began one of the biggest projects of the Student Cooperative Association, a money-saving student ticket. In the fall the committee sold 958 student tickets. To make the project financially sound, Warwick students sold magazines.

A written constitution of the powers of the S.C.A. was drawn up by the Constitution Committee. The constitution set a high standard of achievement for class and S.C.A. officers, and it gave the S.C.A. the power to award certificates of merit. The constitution was approved in the fall of 1952.

The Social Committee planned dances to celebrate Halloween, Christmas, "Twirp Season" and Farmers' Day. They sponsored an October dateless dance for the eighth grade, and, in March, a spring dance.

Each new eighth grader was given "THE COMPASS," a guidebook prepared by the Orientation Committee.

The School Spirit Committee decorated the goal posts for football games, and during basketball season they decorated the gym. They sent the teams to out-of-town games in decorated buses.

The Cafeteria Committee decorated the cafeteria with flowers and paintings.

The Assembly Committee planned many interesting programs, such as "Truth or Consequences," and the speeches made by the foreign students from William and Mary.

The Ethics Committee continued to improve the high moral code set by the S.C.A. in 1950.

JOYCE BRISTOW
Business Manager

In May, 1952, our new staff met for the first time. In a year we would have in our hands the "NINETEEN FIFTY-THREE WARWICK."

All summer and fall we "covered the town" selling ads for Nona to check. Joyce, our Business Manager, was in charge of money of "every description." As Assistant Business Manager, Betty checked subscriptions and activity tickets, and in November we ordered over a thousand annuals.

When our "dummy" came, we crowded around it trying to see every page; and led by Suzanne, we began our real work. Martha Ann planned and scheduled pictures and assisted the photographer, while John and "Eddie" flashed informal shots at assemblies and games. Nancy designed the clever drawings.

George interviewed coaches and players and "Judy" rushed to finish her writeups for "Dot" to type. "Bev," the Assistant Editor, helped with every job.

Miss Abernathy, our busy sponsor, found time to help each one of us, even when six or seven were asking her questions at once.

We'll never forget those freezing winter evenings when we worked at school rushing to meet our deadline.

At last your "NINETEEN FIFTY-THREE WARWICK" is a reality. We worked hard, for you deserved the best.

and we rushed to meet the deadline

The deadline is close!

we read the Sponge

"THE SPONGE" came out every three weeks. To the staff in room 151 this meant working hard every day, often late after school, and on Saturdays.

Bennett Wilson, shut up in the little closet with "Editor's Office" over the door, busily scratched out editorials and the column "Dear Pat." "Pat" Perrin "covered" the school for news, editorials, and her editorial column "Dear Ben." Pat Barber would be out interviewing a player or coach, and Virginia Baker and Shirley Baldwin out gathering news.

Joanne Parker set up the "streamlined" makeup of the finished work, while Shirley Howell made headlines.

Lola Hampton managed the finances of THE SPONGE. She wrote the column about students, called "Guess Who."

Bill Lee and Cary Davidson "chased down" ads, then set them up; Bill also took pictures.

The exchange column and "Sports Interrogations" were written by "Bobby" Vaughan. Writing feature stories and "Country Talk" was Ann Coleman's duty.

Anyone passing room 151 would quickly recognize the familiar sight as the deadline drew near. Each editor was doing his job, Virginia calling through the "office" window telling "Ben" to hurry; Lola sitting with pencil in hand blankly staring at a sheet of paper; Pat splashing ink over a piece of paper and herself; "Bobby" up to his elbows in glue, and Mrs. Roberts going crazy . . . wouldn't you?

Hours of practice made pleasant listening

To the beat of the drums our Senior Band marched onto the field. It was football season, and at Hampton, Newport News, and here at Warwick, they entertained at half-time.

On fall mornings they practiced their half-time formations. After the presidential election they made a formation for "Ike," and at the Highland Springs game they made an "H" and a "W," playing the "Alma Mater" for both schools. For Highland Springs they played a Highland Fling, and "Spring" came out with flowers.

At the head of the band marched their high-stepping majorettes, Sara Jane Bowden and Geneva Hopkins, and their capable drum major, "Monty" Martin. Their ability added to the band's color and precision.

In class, the band elected officers. They were "Brad" Gray, President; Henry Moreland, Vice-President; Geneva Hopkins, Secretary; "Sonny" Motley, Treasurer; Frances Dishman and Sara Jane Bowden, Reporters. Many helped to take care of the room; they did everything from filing music to repair work.

Their director, Mr. Lyle Smith, directed them in performing something new on the peninsula, arrangements for chorus, band, and audience.

At Christmas time the Music Nine chorus sang carols as the band played in assembly and at the Hilton Community Sing.

In January, the Senior Band gave a "Thank You" concert for the citizens of Warwick, for helping them raise the money for their new uniforms.

The All-State Band came to Warwick in February to give a concert. Four Warwick players were selected to play in this band of excellent students. They were: "Billy" Welstead, flute; Donald Stroud, French horn; and two bass horn players, Henry Moreland and David Jarvis.

During the year they marched in several parades on the peninsula and away.

In March the Warwick Band travelled to Maury High School in Norfolk. There they played in the District II Music Festival for all Tidewater schools.

They also made a trip to Williamsburg in the spring to present a concert for the patients at the State Hospital.

In April they gave their annual Spring Concert in the Warwick auditorium.

An outdoor concert at the Mariner's Museum was their last program of the year.

Band Officers

Intermediate Band

In the fall we thirty-two members of the Intermediate Band began practicing for our first performance for the October 8 P.T.A. meeting. We played "Activity March" and "Challanna Waltz," and the Senior Band followed with three selections.

At the Newport News-Warwick J.V. football game we entertained at half-time. Our drum major led us onto the Warwick field.

In March we went with the Senior Band to Maury High School in Norfolk to compete in the District II Music Festival.

We marched in several parades throughout the year.

Our last program was a concert, given in the spring. With the season complete, we saw that we had not only another year of practice, but a year of experience. Senior Band members were graduating; many of us looked forward to "filling their boots."

Two of the band officers, Brad Gray and Geneva Hopkins, check over plans for the "All State Band" with Mr. Smith.

'Twas the night before Christmas—almost—and the A Cappella Choir, forming a Christmas tree, sang familiar Christmas songs in assembly.

It's sixth period and the A Cappella Choir is practicing "The Halls of Ivy" for the Autumn Serenade.

Music is timeless beauty

Early in the fall our A Cappella Choir started practicing for the Autumn Serenade. We remember singing "Halls of Ivy," "Were You There," and "Call to Remembrance."

We juniors and seniors, selected from earlier music classes, elected these officers: Donald Stroud, President; "Patsy" Thore, Vice-President; Lou Raye Warren, Secretary; Anne Piland, Treasurer; Mary Ruth Bunch and "Dot" Krause, Reporters.

As the Christmas Concert drew nearer, we were singing Fred Waring's beautiful "Song of Christmas." We sang at the Christmas meetings of the P.T.A., the A.A.U.W., and the Rotary Club.

In March we began rehearsing late after school for the operetta. Performed on April 23-24, it was a great success.

At Commencement time we were singing the Senior Class song, "You'll Never Walk Alone."

We hope that future A Cappella Choirs will have as many successful concerts as we enjoyed presenting this year.

Created for pleasure

In the October Autumn Serenade we Mixed Chorus members remember singing and acting out "Come To The Fair." We were members of three tenth and eleventh grade music classes, and in assemblies and programs we sang as a group.

The girls from two of our music classes formed the Girls' Choir. In the Autumn Serenade they sang songs like "Steal Away," and "Someday My Prince Will Come."

While some of us acted out scenes in the Christmas Concert, other Mixed Chorus members and the A Cappella Choir created a background of music.

With all the other music classes, our Mixed Chorus participated in the Valentine Day assembly. Musical skits were acted while the choruses sang Valentine music.

We remember hours of practice and backstage work producing the annual operetta.

Singing "Land of Hope and Glory," we sang at our last performances of the year, Baccalaureate Sermon and Commencement.

Los Picaritos

"En español, please," we reminded each other at Spanish Club meetings, as we tried to converse in Spanish.

While learning Spanish history, customs, and songs, we bettered our understanding by corresponding with our Latin American "amigos."

"Brad" Gray was our President; Suzanne Fite, Vice-President; Ada Lou Worth, Secretary; Brandon McDaniel, Treasurer; Henry Jordan, Social Chairman; and Miss Jean Williams, Faculty Advisor.

Beginning the "Christmas in Foreign Lands" assembly "Pat" Mitchem sang "The Lord's Prayer" in Spanish. Following her solo the entire club sang "Noche de Paz" (Silent Night). At our Christmas party we had fun trying to break our decorated piñatas.

Although our club's name implied that we were little rascals, we "picaritos" feel that we really accomplished a great deal and had fun at the same time.

These Spanish students have just finished their special projects. Now they are naming the parts of this model store and house en español.

Facts first

Remember the displays in the science show case in the hall? They were the work of our Science Club. Some of our projects were mineral collections, a radio receiver, and a model rocket engine.

We eager science students each had a project. We collected shells, classified fossils and seeds, prepared research papers, and studied photography and taxidermy. Every other Thursday afternoon we met to discuss our projects and the latest news in science. Often we demonstrated chemistry experiments. Posters in the hall invited everyone to our meetings to watch scientific movies or hear a guest speaker. Our field trips helped us to understand our work.

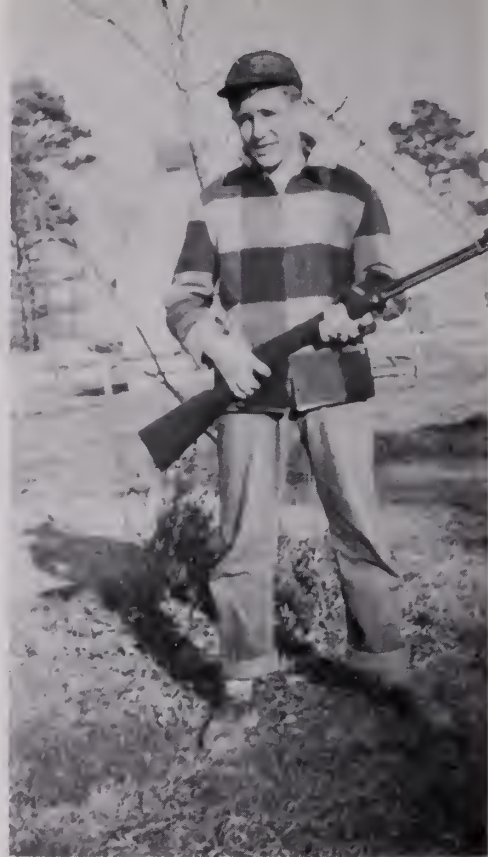

Our officers were: Randall Parks, President; "Dick" Mitchell, Vice-President; "Betty" Carver, Secretary-Treasurer; Cary Davidson, Reporter. Mrs. Betty Mills was our sponsor.

How proud we were in the spring when we displayed our projects at the Tidewater Science Congress.

This year we tried to reach our goal to promote a real interest in science at Warwick.

Clocked for service . . . Key Club

Service and leadership in a democratic community are the aims of our Warwick Key Club.

In September we helped our parent organization, the local Kiwanis Club, sponsor Kids' Day. The proceeds went to the Orthopedic Foundation and to underprivileged children.

We sponsored a contestant in a local cover girl contest, each voter contributing to a fund for needy children.

We planned a New Year's Dance for our club, and in the spring the Key Clubs of Warwick, Hampton, and Newport News sponsored a joint dance.

In the summer after the 1952-1953 session we sent three delegates to the National Kiwanis Convention in San Francisco.

Each year the new Key Club members are chosen by a faculty committee. Our sponsor was Mr. Elmo Stephenson; our officers were: Douglas Lawson, President; Kenneth Pollock, Vice-President; James Thompson, Secretary-Treasurer, and Sam Bland, Chaplain.

It's the day of the Key Club convention and we're on our way to the hotel in Chicago.

Now it's Kids' Day and Sammy and Doug are all ready to raise lots of money.

It's Assembly Time . . .

The ushers of Warwick High School are chosen each spring by an S.C.A. committee for their social competence, satisfactory scholarship, and citizenship.

The confusion brought about by the double assembly was ably handled by these ushers. Rushing to and fro showing students to their places during assemblies, the ushers were easily identified by their white ribbons.

From the first day in September, when new students were welcomed, to the graduation exercises, the ushers were always on hand to help. They had an active part in College Day, concerts and dramatic presentations.

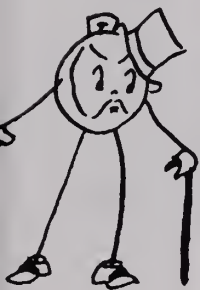

These students who gave so freely of their time and efforts well deserve the thanks we gladly give them.

Le Cercle Francais

Under France's red, white, and blue flag on our French classroom wall was a sign which said "En Avant." It meant "Ever Onward," and it was the motto of our first and second year groups which made up our club.

In our meetings we tried to advance our understanding of the French people by learning of French customs and culture. We saw a film on French cities, a part of the library of books and films we planned.

In the Christmas in Foreign Lands assembly, we sang "Silent Night" in the French words "Sainte Nuit."

Leading the activities for the second year group were: John Flaxington, President; Sue Cridlin, Vice-President; Joan Parker, Secretary-Treasurer; Spencer Tucker, Program Chairman, and Mrs. Ruth Curtis, Faculty Advisor.

Corresponding officers for the first year club were: Betty Forbes, President; Peggy Ferguson, Vice President; "Jackie" Failor, Secretary-Treasurer; Helen Theophilos, Program Chairman.

Hi-C

A timeless Subject

"To know Him and to make Him known," this was the purpose of our Warwick High School Christian Club.

Every Monday afternoon we met in the music room. We loved to sing our club song, "Stand Up for Jesus." Dixie Alligood led our songs while Joyce Harris, or her assistant, Betty Ann Bullock, played the piano.

Donald Stroud was our President; Patsy Thore, Vice-President and Program Chairman; Muriel Vreeland, Secretary-Treasurer; Shirley Coleman, Reporter. Our sponsor was Mr. LePierre Watson.

Joining hands with the Hampton Hi-C Club, we had parties, weiner roasts, and "singsperations." Here at Warwick, we planned faculty day; our teachers led the meeting on December first. In the spring there was a semi-formal supper and an all-day hayride.

In our senior prayer chain we prayed that as our seniors left Warwick, they might always be directed by God to Christian service.

Now, Hi-C members! Let's sing that song again.

Centered around the home

This year, we home economics students looked forward to a new three-room home economics department. We wanted to extend our knowledge, too. That is why we joined the F.H.A. club.

At our first meeting in October, we set our goals. Officers we elected were: Jimmie Nell Faubion, President; Emily Abbott, Vice-President; Bonnie Ann Cox, Secretary-Treasurer; Helen Walker, Parliamentarian; Mary Lou Harris, Reporter.

At Christmas we helped the welfare director, Mrs. Edward Blair. That spicy smell in the halls was the cookies we were baking for the needy. In the sewing room you would find us sewing painstaking ruffles on Christmas dolls.

In February we prepared a panel discussion on home recreation, and we entertained our mothers at a reception in April.

At the end of our successful year, we looked ahead to the summer camp at Smithfield, and to our next year's work.

Distributive Education

Every morning you went to the stationery store, you would find some of our D.E. Club members managing it. This was one way we practiced all we learned in consumer buying class. At one o'clock all eighteen D.E. students left school to go to retailing jobs. Some worked in service stations, department and grocery stores; others handled or sold merchandise.

In the showcase in the front hall we displayed our "bosses'" products: gas and oil, clothes, and groceries.

We chose a member to compete in a Peninsula speech contest. At the Tidewater convention of Distributors Clubs, each district winner gave a speech and the club presidents made reports. In March the winner of the Tidewater contest spoke at the State convention in Richmond.

We planned a Warwick Employer and Employee banquet in the spring, and invited our "bosses."

Club officers were: Phill Rowland, President; Robert Williamson, Vice-President; Mina Freeze, Secretary; "Bobby" Parker, Treasurer; "Johnny" Swicegood, Editor and Promotion Manager, and "Don" Sheppard, Parliamentarian.

Shop

That morning you were late, you were given a signed "blue slip." It was printed in our shop class. We also printed your report cards, and posters, tickets and programs for concerts and plays.

We learned everything from managing hand tools and power equipment to learning mechanical drawing in our general course in Industrial Arts.

Boys in Mechanical Drawing class are engaged in serious thought as they study to prepare themselves for careers in engineering.

Library Assistants

Every day this year about 500 students and teachers passed through the library, choosing from periodicals, films, records, and over 7,000 books. By June there were 800 new books. To increase interest, we student assistants designed bulletin board displays for every season and holiday. We looked forward to a new library with more space to serve everyone.

Safety Patrol

This year about fifty Warwick students spent forty-five minutes each day as safety patrolmen on the school buses.

The students, with Hubert Clodfelter as Captain, were advised by Mr. Elmo Stephenson and Mr. Rommie Hamilton.

In the spring awards assembly several faithful patrolmen received school letters for their services.

There were breathless gridiron moments

The 1952 football season at Warwick was opened September 19 when the "Farmers" played host to John Marshall. Although the Justices won, it didn't quell the spirit of our fighting ball club. We went on the next week-end to beat Mount Vernon, then rated to be one of the top teams of the year.

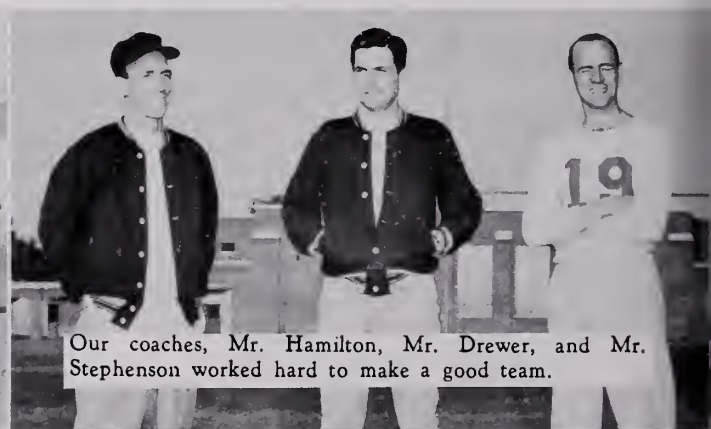

Through the remainder of the season we won two more games, one of which was a conference game. We came close, but not quite close enough to beating our arch rival, Newport News, this year.

At the end of the season we had a three win and seven loss record. Although the wins were not as many as we naturally had hoped for, the student and team spirit was kept always high by our vivacious cheerleaders.

Four hefty "Farmers" are going through their practice routines. It takes hard work to keep in shape.

Our coaches, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Drewer, and Mr. Stephenson worked hard to make a good team.

Practice hard, boys. Remember we want to beat that team, and "practice makes perfect."

In a suspense-filled game a Warwick Farmer stops an opponent.

The Warwick "Baby Farmers" were coached by Athletic Director Mr. "Bill" Formichelli in the 1952 football season.

First, George Wythe played at Warwick. This afternoon game was well attended; it featured the J.V. Cheerleaders and band. "Pete" Smith and Cecil Hatchett led the offensive to score. With the defensive unit holding until the final minutes, Warwick managed a 12 to 7 victory.

Newport News scored a 20 to 0 victory in the "Farmers'" second outing. Quarterback "Billy" Edmundson was outstanding on the Warwick offensive; Davenport and Bunting were the defensive leaders.

"Pete" Smith opened the Matthew Whaley game with a touchdown dash. In two minutes Warwick scored another T. D. Victory seemed ahead; then the "Junior Governors" began to score.

Matthew Whaley tied the score in the second half, and in the closing minutes scored the game-winning touchdown. Holder, Krause, and Irby were outstanding for Warwick.

Warwick, although playing well, lost its second encounter to Newport News, 25 to 6.

In the final game, the best played game of the year, Warwick's victory over Norview was 13 to 7. Irby, Smith, Edmundson, and Hatchett rounded out the backfield, while Wilkinson, Moats, Trousdell, Bunting, Holder, Krause, and Calhoun were the line mainstays.

Mr. Billie Millner was line coach for the "Baby Farmers." Many of these boys will be the varsity leaders of tomorrow.

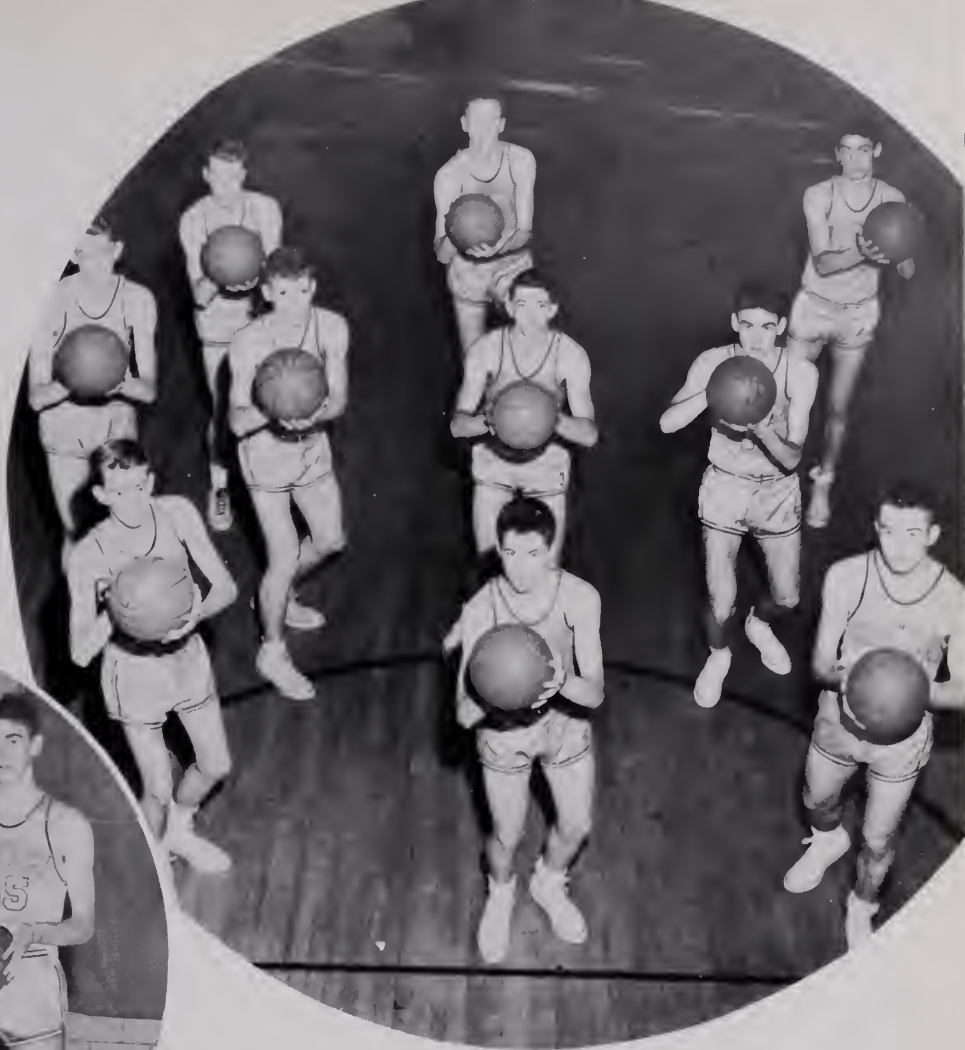

J. V. Cheerleaders

Basketball needed split-second timing

The big five for Warwick started off in a brilliant run this year with our center, Jerry Vaughn, leading the way to capture the high point title in most of the games. Steve Nichols, in this, his first year for Warwick, made a wonderful showing, along with Tommy Lanier, a freshman, who racked up points on those long shots. The other two of the "big five" are Gene Conner and Hubert Clodfelter, known as the steady men of the team for their unfailing team spirit and play set ups.

Unerring accuracy was common with all these boys, but just in case someone went astray there were Lewis St. Clair and Frank McCormick, the top two substitutes, to go in for them.

Jerry Vaughn watches closely as Steve Nichols tries a long shot in our first game with the "Typhoons" of Newport News.

Steve Nichols and No. 23 of the Wilson "Presidents" watch and wait as Tommy Lanier prepares to sink a one-hand push from the key.

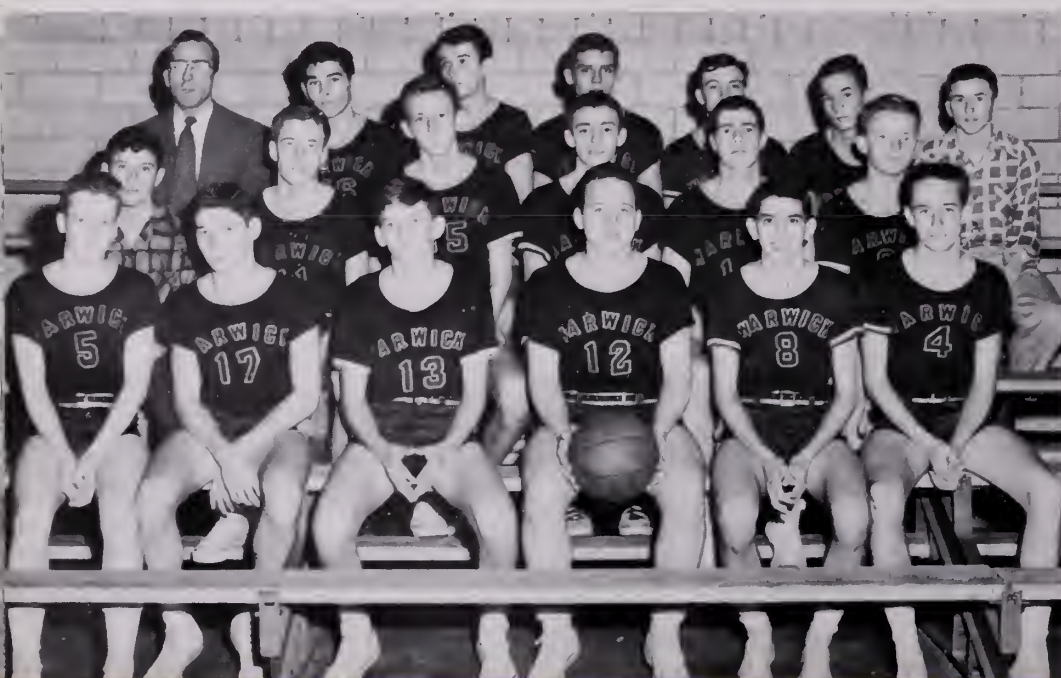

Gene Conner gets away a short one as three "Presidents" and Lewis St. Clair prepare to cover the basket.

The Junior Varsity cagemen scheduled the same teams as the Varsity squad this year except in one case; the Varsity played University of Richmond and the Junior Varsity played George Wythe.

The favorite eight of the J.V. squad included Bobby Bales, the center whom we remember for his accuracy and timing in his driving lay up shots. Pete Smith led in points at most of the games, with his one-hand push from his guard position. Other offensive guards were Don Schubert and Jimmy Pierce. The defensive specialists were Tom Oltarzewski at center and Lee Rayfield at forward. The all around forwards were David Short and Gene Foster, who are outstanding ball handlers and set shot men from their positions. The J.V. squad, having seven wins to their credit by the first week in February as the annual goes to press, can readily be called the first winning J.V. team in a long time.

J. V.'s

Henry Jordan won the State A.A.U. Heavy-weight Wrestling title in the State tournaments in March, 1952. As captain of the Warwick wrestling squad, he is now getting set to meet a new opponent.

Wrestling

Since 1951 when the wrestling team was first organized, Coach Rommie Hamilton has seen one hundred percent improvement in his squad.

By February, three meets were won and three lost. Granby won an outstanding match for both teams; Warwick retaliated by winning a match with South Norfolk.

With Captain Henry Jordan, the team went to the Charlottesville state meet in February.

The time is now

It is Commencement night in 1953. The clocks look down on deserted halls, with exam reviews and current events papers scattered, as if the students had suddenly dropped their tasks to begin something new. Schoolbooks are carefully stacked away for next year's students. Footballs and basketballs lie in the gym, waiting for new seasons. Somewhere, joyous, youthful cheering is waiting, too.

The seniors hope their striving will help Warwick in following years. Before them are the tasks of life, some unfinished, others carefully planned, all waiting for them just beyond the clock of time.

...and you can get it!

Telephone work is interesting — and you don't need experience to get a good job after graduation!

That's one reason why so many girls head for the telephone company when they finish school. They know they'll earn good money from the start, even while they're trained, and get raises regularly.

Your high school counselor can tell you more about the many different telephone jobs — or come in and see us when you finish school!

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

As we leave Warwick in 1953 we would like to express our appreciation to the following who have helped us to publish this book:

THE CAMPUS PUBLISHING COMPANY, Philadelphia, for printing this book, and particularly to Mr. Neill Watson, for his interest and his valuable advice.

NACHMAN'S STUDIO, Newport News, for taking individual pictures, and especially to Mrs. Anne Cooke for her help and her friendliness to the students and faculty.

MR. GENE EDMONDS, of Hampton, for the time he spent and the fine work he did in taking our group pictures.

OUR ADVERTISERS, for supporting this publication, and the JUVENILE BOOTERY of Newport News, a contributor.

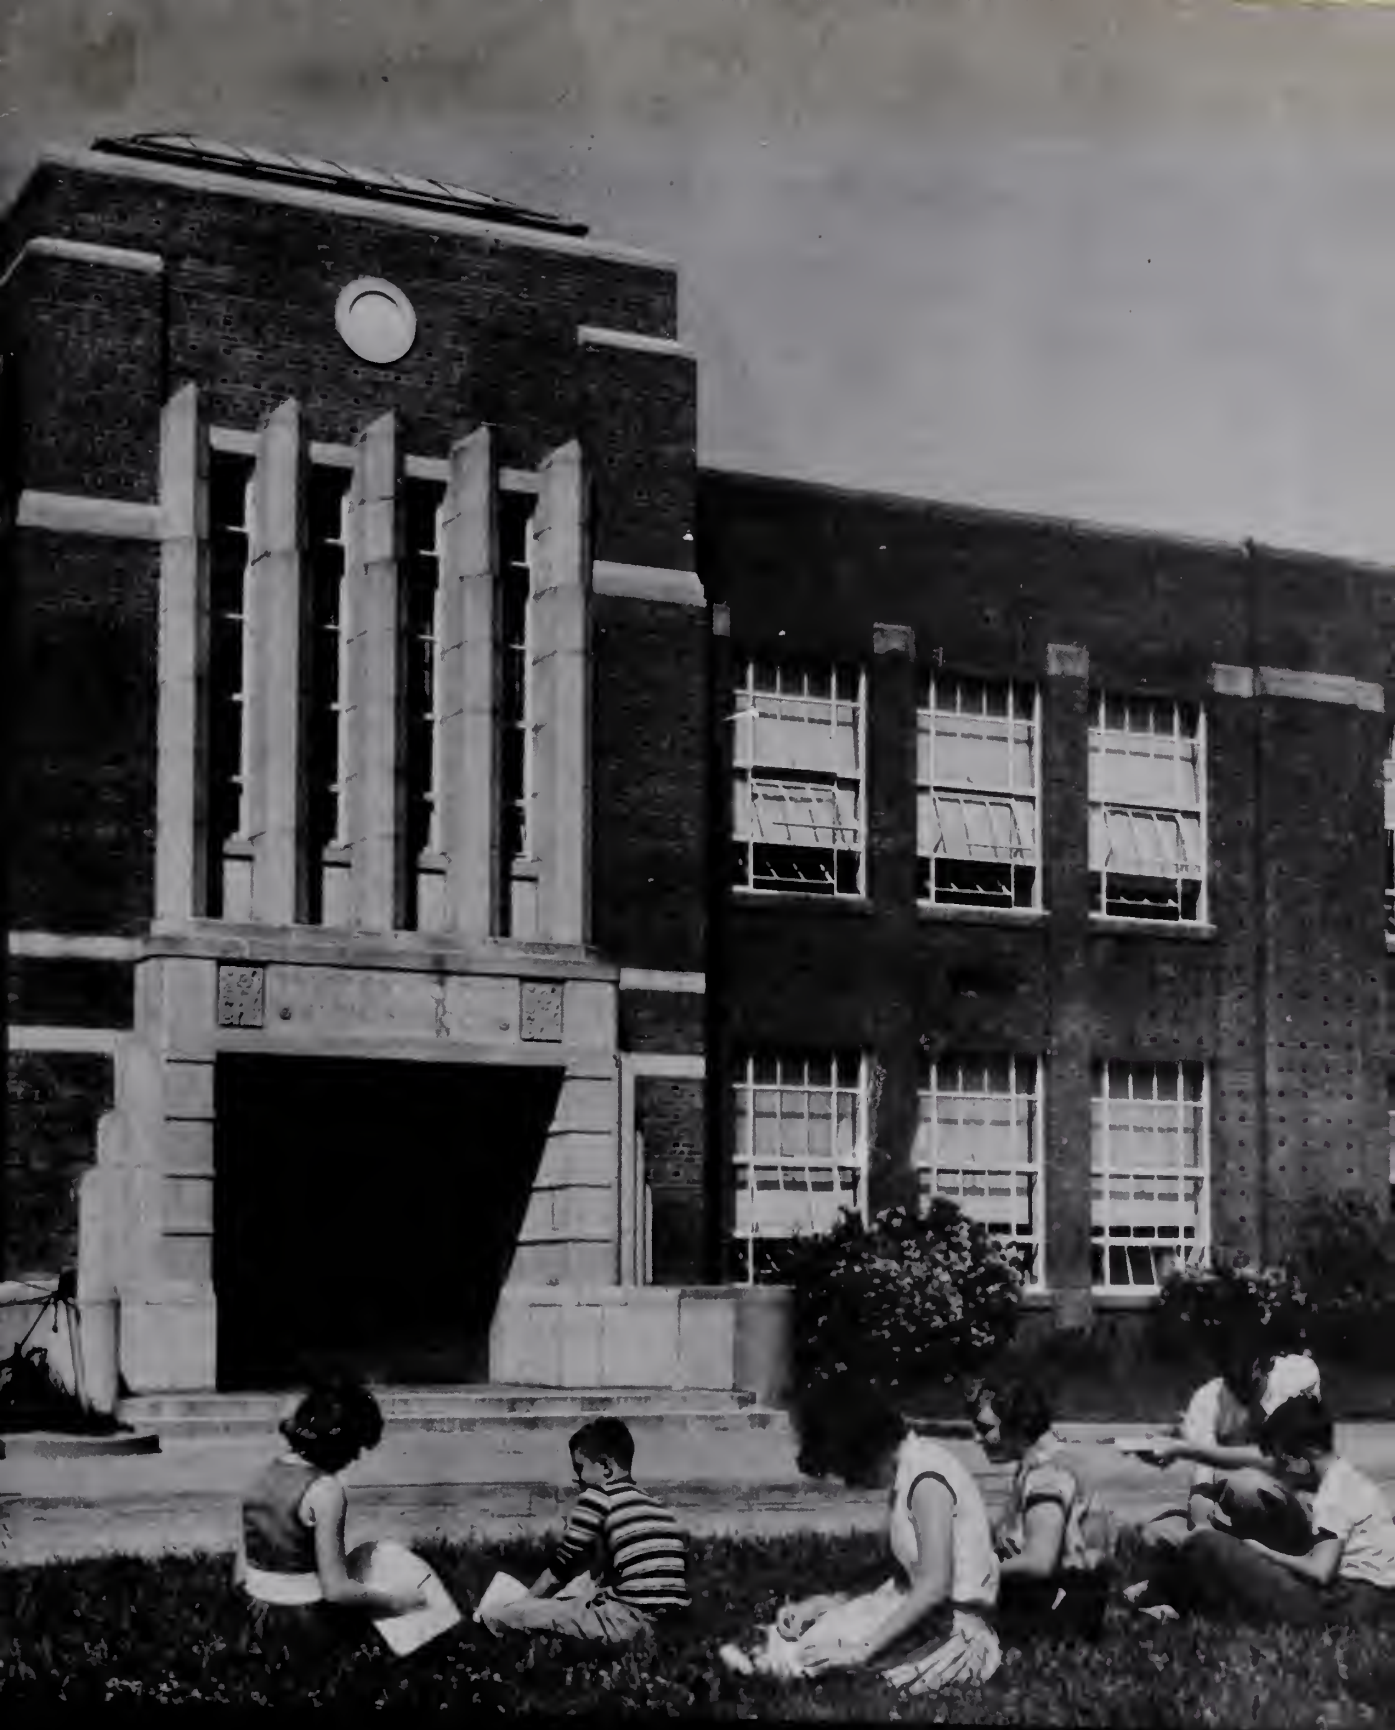

THE STUDENTS, FACULTY, and ADMINISTRATION, for their interest and cooperation throughout the year.

MISS HILDA ABERNATHY, our faculty advisor, for her patience, her tireless efforts to solve our problems, and her friendly encouragement which made our job such a pleasure.

We would like to thank the STAFF of the WARWICK for their many hours of work to publish this book. We give our best wishes to "Bev" Cassidy and Betty Altwegg as they look forward to the 1954 WARWICK.

Our happiest hours were in the Spring

ALL-STATE BAND

In December, 1952, our Warwick musicians auditioned in Hampton for the Virginia All-State Band. Our director, Mr. Lyle M. Smith, chose Warwick's representatives in the Virginia All-State Workshop Band.

On February 6, the players chosen for the two bands came to Warwick from every section of Virginia. They presented an afternoon concert on Sunday, February 8. The directors were: Mr. Daniel L. Martino, All-State Band, and Dr. C. B. Hunt, Jr., Workshop Band.

This year Billy Welstead represented Warwick in the All-State Band as 1st chair flute, for his fifth time.

On May 1, the Warwick band returned with high honors from the Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester. In the Fireman's Parade there, "Monty" Martin was judged the best drum major, and ours was rated the best high school band.

Spring is here!

BASEBALL

This season our baseball team won seven games and lost five. In the conference games, we defeated Newport News once, Hampton once, and Norview three times. Newport News and Hampton both defeated us twice. In the three non-conference games, Matthew Whaley and Granby both lost to Warwick; Maury defeated us.

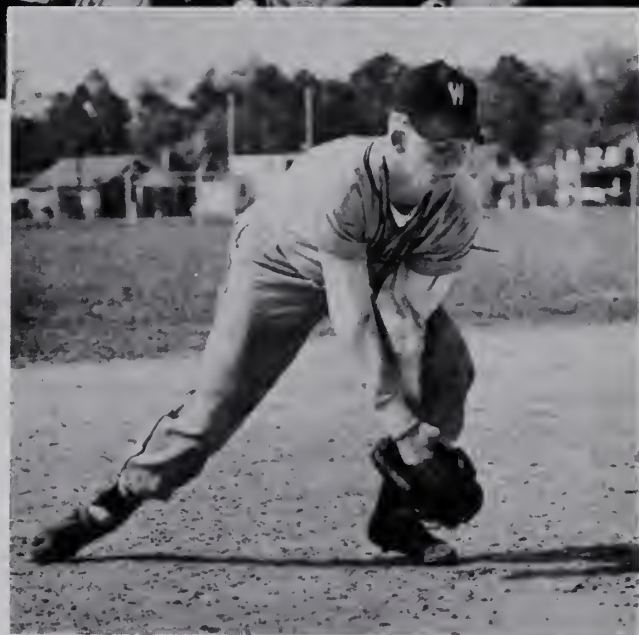

In the Peninsula division, Warwick and Hampton tied for second place this season.

Lewis St. Clair and David Irby both made the All-Peninsula team; St. Clair played first base and Irby played third base on this team.

Lewis St. Clair, with a .362 average, was Warwick's highest hitter.

• Captain George Hamner played shortstop for the Warwick team.

In the spring Awards Assembly, twelve players stepped up to receive their letters. Nine boys will return for the 1954 season.

David "Red" Irby fields a fast grounder.

Track

Coached by Mr. Milton Drewer and Assistant Coach Mr. Billie Millner, our track team won three meets and lost two this year. The team won meets with South Norfolk, Cradock, and Hampton; it lost to Newport News and Norview.

Our players broke several Warwick records this year. Jerry Vaughan raised our discus-throwing record, Richard Collins rated highest in pole vaulting, and Herman Atwood broke our running record.

In the state track meet, Richard Collins placed highest in pole vaulting and Jerry Vaughn ranked third in discus throwing

Special Memories

Seniors have a big time autographing brand new yearbooks.

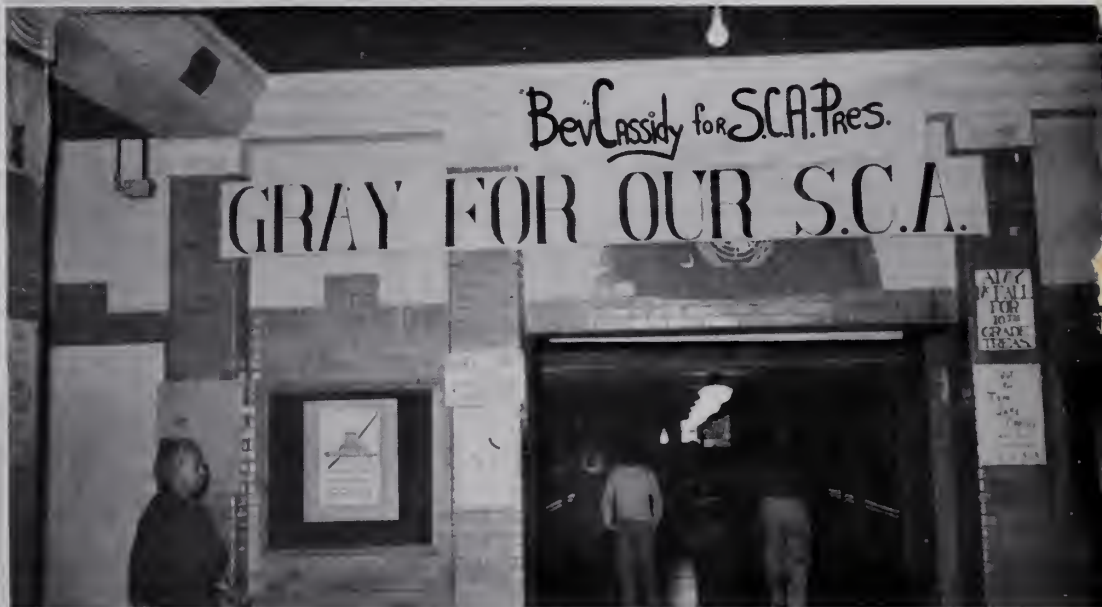

This is the beginning of our new modern cafeteria which we hope will be completed and in use by next year.

Field Day was lots of fun for everybody.

Seniors excitedly joined together and danced the "Bunny Hop" during the Senior Assembly.

It was a long hard fight, with both students campaigning vigorously for the presidency, but Brad came out on top.

The Final Hour

In our "final hour," sitting together for the last time, our class learned its last lesson from the speaker. He told us that perhaps because Democracy is in peril, it will survive and grow.

Left . . . right . . . left . . . right . . . to the organ-like music we marched into the auditorium for the last time.

We remembered the Senior Banquet . . . the cafeteria doors screened with twisted banners of maroon . . . our grab-bag prizes . . . Class Day . . . the "Last Will" . . . the prophecy skit . . . the Baccalaureate Sermon of the Reverend Roy Sloop. Yes, they were happy memories, but what of the future?

Now, at Commencement, Dr. Dabney Lancaster was saying that we must live today; then yesterday will be a dream of happiness, and tomorrow, a promising future.

Dr. Dabney Lancaster, President of Longwood College, is giving the Commencement address.

It was Commencement, June 9th, as we began our march. Suddenly we realized that Warwick was the "center of the world," for it had set us on our journey.
